

You Are Invited To the 2010 Sailing Focus Meeting

When: 2:00 PM Sunday, March 7,2010

Where: Crow's Nest Bar and Lounge

Why: To Listen to everyone's ideas on how to make this sailing season better than the last one (Let me guess-Wind would be a start!!!).

I would like to extend this invitation to everyone at the yacht club. The purpose of this meeting is traditionally to establish schedules and regattas for the upcoming season. For you non-competitive sailors that attend, this might be a time when you can consume the elegant chili and hot dog cuisine that our fine chefs have perfected after attending culinary schools in various parts of the world. If that does not satisfy or relieve you from the boredom of our idle chatter, there are plenty of refreshments available at the bar.

Following our scheduling chatter and traditional complaints about the racing committee(which I can finally take personally), we would like to open the discussion to everyone. IBYC is a yacht club and we would like to make the joy of sailing available to as many people as have an interest - whether they are 8 or 80 years old. I'm sure many of you have ideas you can share with us and if not, you can offer responses to the ideas that are generated. If you have or know of anyone with an interest in sailing consider part 2 of this meeting an opportunity to provide input and discuss ideas that others generate. This sailing season can only be as good as we make it(assuming there is wind!).

Your Fleet Captain,

Mike Pick
